

SALEM COMMUNITY COLLEGE

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION TITLE: Instructor of Nursing

POSITION CLASSIFICATIONS: Adjunct Faculty (NUR 204)

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Master of Science in Nursing

Experience: Teaching experience preferably in a community college setting, dealing with diverse student populations. Specialization in critical care, emergency and/or operating room nursing.
High fidelity simulation.
Recent healthcare experience and strong communication skills

Skills/Abilities:

1. Ability to teach lab skills appropriate for the care of the complex client (Health Deviations II—NUR 204).
2. Ability to use appropriate instructional technology.
3. Ability to develop and use innovative instructional approaches such as team teaching, collaborative learning and group problem solving in the classroom setting.
4. Ability and willingness to be a collaborative member of the nursing department by providing feedback to faculty and staff.

Start Date is January 25, 2010

REPORTING STRUCTURE:

Reports to: Director of Nursing

Qualified Candidates should send a letter of application outlining how their qualifications meet the requirements of this position, a current resume, and 3 references to: employment@salemcc.edu. Electronic submissions are preferred (include Job Title in Subject Line), however, hard copy can be sent to:

Salem Community College
Search Committee: Adjunct Faculty – Nursing Dept.
460 Hollywood Avenue
Carneys Point, NJ 08069
Fax: 856-351-2712

AA/EOE